It's cold comfort to the ones without it
To know how they struggled
How they suffered about it
If their lives were exotic and strange
They would likely have gladly exchanged them
For something a little more plain
Maybe something a little more sane
We each pay a fabulous price
For our visions of paradise
But a spirit with a vision
Is a dream with a mission

— Rush

We look before and after,
and pine for what is not:
our sincerest laughter
with some pain is fraught;
our sweetest songs are those that tell of the saddest thought . . . Shelly
"The shallow drowned lose less than we . . ."
All alone, or it twos
the ones who really love you
Walk up and down outside the wall
Some hand in hand
Some gathering in bands
The bleeding hearts and the artists
Make their stand
And when they've given you their all
Some stagger and fall and after all it's not easy
Banging your heart against some mad bugger's Wall

— Pink Floyd
— Nine Inch Nails
— An Akash

I can't help thinking Christ never had it like this
"poor everybody . . ."

Amanda Q. Adams

"I know what I know. I say what I say. These things I keep in the back of my mind."

— (paraphrased) Paul Simon

To ALL my friends — "I need you like the flowers need the rain."
To the Firedoor — "We resort to all sorts of things — pleasure, lust, drunkenness, revellings, wantonness."

— Alcoholism and Addiction Magazine

"I won't say good-bye my friend, 'cause you and I will meet again. Somewhere in some farout place, I will recognize your face."

— Tom Petty

Rache — P.C.F.T.E.

We might look a little older we might live in different lands, but, in our hearts, we'll always be together. "Stay gold."

— The Outsiders

Jonathan Adams

"Rip Van Winkle had it damn good."

"Question authority."

We came. We saw. We laughed."

"These are the days. It's all downhill from here. You're sitting there and you realize it just doesn't get any better than this and you just gotta sit back and enjoy it."

"The only thing better than chess is sex."

World Champion Gary Kasparov

"Nothing stands but for (time's) scythe to mow:
And yet to the times in hope my verse shall stand,
Praising they worth, despite his cruel hand"

"Andover Cottage is the home of the fatties!" — H
 "I'd rather be a failure at something I enjoy than be a success at something I hate." — George Burns

To my friends "You have filled me with a madness for pleasure. You have gone down into the depths. You have led me there." For the good times for four years, thank you SB, JB, AR, LT, RG, LS, AW, CD, CK, MS, DH, DS, BN, CR, CvS, GT, CG, JF, MLE, LY, AB, SK, Vermont Posse, GPH, and Johnson South.

To Abi: It is better to have loved and lost than to have never loved at all. Thanks for all the good times, Abi. I'll love you always. Long live the A.C. tradition. Carry it on well. Take care, old man H. I've been thinking and you know you are old enough to be my father.

For everything ever, I thank my family. I finally realized how good I have it.

"Stop it? Stop it, did you say? Why we've hardly started." — Dr. Brodsky, A Clockwise Orange

"What is happening to you now is what should happen to any normal healthy organism contemplating the actions of the forces of evil, the workings of the principle of destruction. You are being made sane, you are being made healthy." — Dr. Branom, A Clockwise Orange

"But where I itty now, O my brothers, is all on my oddy knocky, where you cannot go." — Alex, A Clockwise Orange

"But you, O my brothers, remember sometimes thy little Alex that was. Amen. And all that cal." — Alex, A Clockwork Orange.

"It is a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done."

"If I make my life a voyage of discovery . . . I expect . . . to meet the unknown: I live with the unknown before me and behind me; the unknown becomes my goal and my companion on the way."

"Nothing of him that doth fade
 But doth suffer a sea-change
 Into something rich and strange."

My fondest love and thanks to Mom, Dad, and Jung who gave me love and support through all the years of my life. I dedicate my thanks to my teachers who helped me find wonders not only on the written pages, but also in our vibrant universe and our friendships.

Tina and Irina, I hope that our friendship will be forever, exactly the way it is now.

"Arr, Arr, Arrooo . . ." — a coyote
 "Come, I invite you all!
 Come over sometime, and I'll let you see
 My toys and my menagerie —
 My frogs and birds and bugs and bats,
 Squirrels, hedgehogs, and two cats.
 The hunting in this neighborhood
 Is exceptionally good."

— The Bad Hat,
 "Madeline and the Bad Hat"

Claire Antoszewski

To everyone — Good Luck. "Stories like ours have happy endings.

Mum & Dad — Thank you for putting up with me even though I never quite managed to play the system."

I love you.

Chez — If I ever do set the world on fire, at least you know I'll be able to pull the alarm! I love you and will miss you all oodles! Z-Kooky fish and puff forever! Love —

"Let's have a sleepover and get up early!"
 There is a fine line between passion and insanity

"one guy jumps on it and takes the blast, but it's a killer grenade and everyone dies anyway. Before they die, though, one of the dead guys says, 'The fuck you do that for?' and the other guy starts to smile but he's dead."

"Jaques: All the world's a stage and the men and women merely players."

— W. Shakespeare. As You Like It
 Every winter I can't wait until the global warming reaches Andover. My academic turn-ons: Art, Spanish, and U.S. History 1945 — P.A. is like a good old wine — the older it gets, the better it tastes, the more it costs.

PHILLIPS IS FOREVER.

Kristen L. Asquith

— Al Thanks for everything. Always remember the good die young, don't change until you must. Oh ya, and watch out for low ceiling fans!

— Lauren — '00 Commons, chemistry, JC + LC, and numerous other "problems." Thanks for being there everyday.

— Carter, Jen, Heather, and Ellie — Varsity Basketball '89 — "the 0-13 team" Never forget — "Winning isn't Everything."

— "Duckie" — Hang in there, only one more year. Make the most of it & have fun. I'll never forget you.

— Jessie — You'll always be my "baby." Few People appreciate how hard it is to be a consistently successful pitcher, but believe me I KNOW.

— Thanks also to Mr. Drench and H for all their support on and off the field.

— Sean — I believe in you. You have the ability to make all your dreams come true. Thanks for believing in me and giving me the strength I needed to make it.

— Mom, Dad, Colin — It wouldn't have been possible without you behind me and on the sidelines!

I LOVE YOU ALL.
 Someday when we reminisce,
 We'll all say
 there wasn't much we missed
 And through the tears
 The Smile when we recall,
 We had it all
 For just a moment

— St. Elmo's Fire

Ollie Babson

I was gratified to be able to answer promptly, and I did. I said I didn't know.

— Mark Twain

Thanks Mom and Dad. I don't think that I'll ever be able to let you know how much you mean to me. I love you. To N.C. J.M. I hope this isn't the end. G.T., J.F., M&M. W., N.C. and P.K. you made Andover hard to leave.

Mark Baker

"All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players; they have their exits and their entrances, and one man in his time plays many parts."

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose
the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And— which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!

— Rudyard Kipling

The Lake Isle of Innisfree

I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made:
Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honeybee,
And I live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow
Dropping from the veils of the morning where the cricket sings;
There midnight's all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow,
And evening full of the linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping low sounds by the shore;
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core. — W.B. Yeats
I love you Mommo and KHB and ELM and JLC, my eye-opener.

Kenneth Brisbois

In my life, I have one simple desire. To tear down the sky.
Mom, Dad, Yvette, you mean the world to me and I love each one of you with all my heart. Here's to a happy childhood.
To my friends, Mickey Minces, Ethan, Guth, Purv, Dan, Jimmy, Mike, Joe, the boys of '42 (past and present), the McGraws, Eric Eitel, the football team, and everyone else who made me laugh: thank you.
To the men in my life; My father, Ron Burton, Mr. McGraw, Coach Smith, Kevin Heelan, and Eric Eitel: I hope I can display even a modicum of the steel inner-strength and undaunted compassion you all possess.
To Andover,

Heather Brown

Youth is not a time of life; it is a state of mind; it is not a matter of rosy cheeks, red lips and supple knees; it is not a matter of the will, a quality of imagination, a vigor of emotions; it is the freshness of the deep springs of life . . . You are as young as your faith, as old as you doubt; as young as your self-confidence, as old as you fear; as young as your hopes, as old as you despair. — B. Ullman

Thanks to everyone who held my hand through the past four years: MB, EM, MO, JC, JD, SS, AC, MP and dbabubeb. To the wacky Newman House guys: Hi! . . .

MP, AC, HB, EK, JD, JM, AA, SC — you guys have given me more than I ever deserved. Thank you — my love always. CR: I can't explain how different my life would have been without you. You'll never know how much you mean to me. VH: Time (once again) to acknowledge and move on. Go on now, it's ok. I love you. H and Mr. and Mrs. K.: I can never thank you enough for your guidance, support, and faith. I love you guys. To everyone who helped me grow: life is perpetually the last gift under the Christmas tree. You think you've reached the end, but there's always a little surprise waiting if you look. Ever need that surprise? Give me a call — I'll always have something up my sleeve. Take care. M + D: Thanks for the opportunity; I hate to imagine the person I'd be without it (and Cristin . . .) I love you.
 "Goodbye," said Eeyore. "Mind you don't get blown away, little piglet. You'd be missed. People would say 'Where's little Piglet been blown to?' — really wanting to know.

There's no political solution
To our troubled evolution
Have no faith in constitution
there is no bloody revolution

Our so-called leaders speak
With words they try to jail you
They subjugate the meek
But it's the rhetoric of failure

Where does the answer lie?
Living from day to day
If it's something we can't buy
There must be another way

We are spirits in the material world
If you can't be with the one you love
Love the one you're with Preserve your memory
It's all that's left of you

"I opened up the Schumann book to the dark little piece I had played at the recital. It was on the left-hand side of the page, "Pleading Child." It looked more difficult than I remembered. I played a few bars, surprised at how easily the notes came back to me. And for the first time, or so it seemed, I noticed the piece on the right-hand side. It was called "Pleading Child" was shorter but slower; "Perfectly contented" was longer but faster. And after I played them both a few times, I realized they were two halves of the same song."

I could just see the corner of the fenced up copse in front where the only man I had to pass to win the race was going all out to gain the half-way mark. Then he turned into a tongue of trees and bushes where I couldn't see him anymore, and I couldn't see anybody, and I knew what the loneliness of the long-distance runner running across country felt like, realizing that as far as I was concerned this feeling was the only honesty and realness there was in the world and I knowing it would be no different ever, no matter what I felt at odd times, and no matter what anybody else tried to tell me.

Ooh, that red, white and blue
And when the band plays hail to the Chief,
Ooh, they'll point the cannon at you.
It ain't me, no it ain't me,
It ain't no senators son.
It ain't me, no it ain't me,
I ain't no fortunate one.
Some folks are born silver spoon in hand,
Lord don't they help themselves,
But when the tax man come to the door,
Lord the house looks like a rummage sale.
It ain't me, no it ain't me,
I ain't no millionaire's son.
It ain't me, no it ain't me,
I ain't no fortunate one.

All I Really Need To Know I Learned In Kindergarten

You've got to break each precious dream
Until it breaks your heart in two
Build your life until you find
What's right for you.

SOMETIMES THERE'S NOTHING TO FEEL
SOMETIMES THERE'S NOTHING TO HOLD
SOMETIMES THERE'S NO TIME TO RUN AWAY
SOMETIMES YOU JUST FEEL SO OLD.
THE TIMES IT HURTS WHEN YOU CRY
THE TIMES IT HURTS JUST TO BREATHE
AND THEN IT SEEMS LIKE THERE'S NO ONE LEFT AND ALL YOU WANT IS TO SLEEP.

The Cure

You can't change the world
But you can change the facts
And when you change the facts
You change points of view
You may change a vote
And when you change a vote
You may change the world.

"but it's too much too late" you say
"for doing this now we should have done it then"
well it just goes to show how wrong you can be and how you really should know that it's never too late to get up and go

Fairytales never really leave us. We never escape the myth/hope/plea "they lived happily ever after." And I don't think my princes and fairy godmothers and magic have died. I do know that the witches are real though they never just stay under my bed. St. Paul said, "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." And with this thought nestled in the back corner of my consciousness, I have lived my life. I respect the goblins and pray always for magic.

 now, so we won't have so much to carry."

A.A. Milne

"With the falling of leaves, the masks of green are stripped off the hillsides, revealing the diversity and uniqueness of each ridge and valley, rock, and stream . . . hitherto unseen. It is in the winter, when the hills bare their inner-most selves, that we got to know them. Then, in the spring, when the masks return, we can look at the hills as old friends few others understand.

So it is with people. Most of the times we wear our masks. But during the difficult times, the winters of our lives, we shed our facades and reveal all the intricacies of the unique beings we are. It is in these moments that friendships are formed, and we experience one another as few others ever will."

This is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning.

— Winston Churchill, 1/10/42

He was in the backseat of his car, which was why he couldn't find the steering wheel. So it goes.

— Kurt Vonnegut

There are some things one can only achieve by a deliberate leap in the opposite direction. One has to go abroad in order to find the home one has lost.

— Franz Kafka

#94: He was driving home from work in medium traffic. He had the radio on to balance out the roar of the wind through the window. He looked at the steering wheel, there was a fly perched between his hands. With his right hand, he tried to swat the fly. The fly easily dodged his hand, circled his head, and landed on the tip of his nose. He smacked himself on the face and cursed. The car in the next lane beeped as he swerved. The fly was now perched on his left hand. He didn't try to hit it. He just watched it as it rubbed its front legs together. He made a grab at the fly and missed. He hit an abandoned car at over seventy miles an hour. The car burst into flames and exploded. The man was destroyed, the fly flew away.

Do not excite yourself. Be calm. Quietness is indeed a sign of strength. That is the law of opposites. So be quiet. Calmness and quietness make one free — even on the scaffold.

— Franz Kafka

Lisa Mills

"She looked to her left and saw the man lying on the desert ground, his cloak pulled around him, one arm under his head, fast asleep. His face in sleep was stirring, almost frowning; but his left hand lay relaxing on the dirt, beside a small thistle that still bore ragged cloak of gray fluff and its tiny defense of spikes and spines. The man and the small desert thistle; the thistle and the sleeping man . . . He was one whose power was akin to, and as strong as the Old Powers of the earth; one who talked with dragons, and held off earthquakes with his word. And there he lay asleep on the dirt with a little thistle growing by his hand. It was very strange. Living being in the world, was a much greater and strange thing than she had ever dreamed."

I know of things they can't know of, and so do you. We know that there's a poetry. We know that there's death. They can only take them on hearsay.

— E.M. Forster, Howard's End

Ours is essentially a tragic age, so we refuse to take it tragically. The cataclysm has happened, we are among the ruins, we start to build up new little habitats, new little hopes. It is rather hard to have new little hopes. It is rather hard work! There is now no smooth road into the future; but we go round, or scramble over the obstacles. We've got to live, no matter how many skies have fallen.

This bridge will only take you halfway there to those mysterious lands you long to see: through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs and the moonlit woods where unicorns run free. So come and walk awhile with me and share the wondrous worlds I've known. But this bridge will only take you halfway there. The last few steps you'll have to take alone.

Thanks to everyone, everywhere, who has helped to make these four years memorable. How could I have done it without all of you? Jen, thanks for always being there for me, keeping me sane, and not forgetting about me even when I was in France. Beth, never forget Fred and Ted, oh my head! Arian, if we just smile and laugh a lot, we'll be fine! Colleen, even though I don't always show it, I do care about you. Don't be afraid to do whatever your heart desires. Mom and Dad, Thanks for putting up with all my dreams and helping me to realize them. Hopefully they'll all mean something someday. I love you all!

To all of my friends (you know who you are), the Women of Carriage house, GW, TM, all of the teachers and faculty members who've helped me along the way, Mrs. Sykes, Mr. Scott, Trish Russel, Chris Shaw, Mrs. Brother, Mr. Drench, Mr. Kip, Lou, and all of the people I've met over the past three years . . . THANK YOU!

To Rachel — Hang in there, and don't let any of the big, mean seniors push you around.

To all of my relatives — Thanks for everything.

To Auntie Debbie, Grammy, and Grandpa — Thanks for all your love and support.

To Dad, Kim and Ronnie — Thanks for putting up with me for the past seventeen years.

To Mom — How could I possibly thank you for all of the things you've done for me? All I can say is that I love you, and I appreciate you more than you'll ever know.

THANK YOU ANDOVER, AND GOODBYE!

Thus let me live, unseen, unknown,
Thus lamented let me die,
Steal from the world, and not a stone
Tell where I lie
So I turned to the Garden of Love
That so many sweet flowers bore;
And I saw it was filled with graves,
and tomb-stones where flowers should be:
And Priests in black gowns were walking their rounds,
And binding with briars my joys and desires.

My four years at P.A. were dedicated to my grandmother, who will forever be in my heart.

I chopped down the house that you had been saving to live in next summer. I am sorry, but it was morning and I had nothing to do . . . K.K.

This is the terminal, the break. Behind this point, you take the way you must take; and I remain . . .

Holly — Thanx for always being on my side. Without you my life would have been boring. Never lose your spirit. Yes we will see each other again.

I do not know if this is the beginning, the end of the beginning, the beginning of the end, or the end. All I do know is that if this is the end of the beginning, I will never forget it.

Soraya — We went through a lot together, without killing each other. I hope many more things lie ahead. Luv you (no not deep inside, even if it was supposed to take three years)

Mami, Don Benitez gracias por todo. Todo lo que echo se lo debo a Uds. Espero poder hacerlos orgullosos de mi. Mami, perdon que no alcance a escribirte.

To the Bishop Posse, C.K., D.C., J.C., C.M., G.W., and M.M. Stay smooth. To the Blachard girls T.B., J.G., A.B., L.M.F. Next year they'll all be after you. To all my other friends, Thanx and I'll miss ya.

All good things approach their goal crookedly. Like cats, they arch their their backs, they purr inwardly over their approaching happiness: all good things laugh.

A man's stride betrays whether he has found his own way: behold me walking! But whoever approaches his goal dances.

And verily, I have not become a statue: I do not yet stand there, stiff, stupid, stony, a column; I love to run swiftly.

And though there are swamps and thick melancholy on earth, whoever has light feet runs even over mud and dances as on sweet ice.

Lift up yours hearts, my brothers, high, higher! And do not forget your legs either. Lift up your legs too, you good dancers; and better yet, stand on your heads!

The path I follow
 I can hardly see
 it is so faint trod
 and overgrown.
 I fail to find it
 among dark trunks, leaves living and dead. And then I am alone, the woods
 shapeless around me.
 I look away, my gaze
 at rest among leaves,
 and then I see the path
 again, a dark way going on through the light.

I don't think it's any surprise to you to hear how much coming home to your meant to me each and every day. No matter what happened during the course of the day, before my head hit the snatchpad, I would be laughing again. I wish we could stay together forever and do it all over again. I love you guys.

to: Margie, Ellie, and Christy (Johnson N. past), and Twitch and Chachi (Johnson N. future)
You guys helped make it a heck of a place to live. to: the Vermont Crew, 1991-1993

No matter where we are in years to come, there will always be our mountain, for VT-style bonding, midnight sledding, and relaxing with a few Rollers.

to: the best class that ever had to create their own convocation, esp. CVS, AD, SA, HS, JP, & CG, Thanks for being here and adding to all this.

And finally, Thanks Mom, Dad, Rob, Sarah, and Paul for being on the other end of the phone whenever I needed to be reminded of the important things. I love you.

Life at Phillips Academy has had its ups and downs, however, one thing that will always stand out to me is the school's wealth in culture and friendships. My experience will always remain valuable to me.

I would like to thank: The Scott family, Mr. Drench, Mr. & Mrs. McNemar, the "dogs" of the boys varsity soccer team. Oba D., Austin, Berky, Satie, John, Danny, and most of all my ever-jovial roommate Air Reese, the Steven's posse, all the new juniors (you all know who you are), all my ever faithful friends and 'loved ones' and finally thanks to the school faculty that helped me through my rough and trying times, and my loving family (Ludlow, Rose, Marvin, Jerry, Sian, Bertis).

Mom, Dad, and Lori — Where can I start? . . . Thank you all for everything! I know I wasn't always easy to deal with but I appreciate your standing by me. I love all you so much. G & P — Thanks for always making me the "good guy". I love you both very much. Thanks for everything, especially the Little bonuses you threw in along the way.

Bobbe and Zayde — I miss you both so much. There isn't a day that goes by when you don't enter my thoughts. I'll always love you.

A.S., L.C., R.M., & S.K. — What would P.A. have been without D.S.P.? I love you all — thanks for all of the good times. Stay in touch forever.

J.Y. — Thanks for being such a great roomie. I'll never forget Stimson West. J.P. — Biology, History, Temple!! What's left? Thanks for all.

C.K. — I never thought we'd come so far together. Never forget Junior Year Humanities. Thanks for being such a great friend . . . most of the time.

Tim — What can I say? "I saved the best for last!" I could never have made it without you. Thanks for a lot of great memories. Never forget "US." I love you.

Mom, Dad, Michael & Susan,
All these years you've stood by me with neverending love, support and understanding. Thank you and I love you all so much.
C.G., Stina, you will always be close to me; allnighters, procrastination and cramming, "what's the meaning of life?" at 5 in the morning, "I am going to scream!", workduty?, 6 p.m. tuesdays, "Later, yeah, maybe tomorrow . . . not!", squash and tennis, deep talks . . . Memories last a lifetime. I'm always by your side. Thanx and ILY
A.C., We've been friends for so long, kindergarten through highschool. Though we might be apart next year, I'll always be there for you. Never forget those long long talks, going to sleep at 3 in the morning, late-night early morning all day phonecalls, Catonese gossip sessions, problems and solutions?/ "No, this is the last time!", "What? It's already 3? Oh well, go on . . . " . . . Hong Kong's the best, I'll miss you roomie, ILY.
C.H. & E.P., We've been through so much these past few years, you've helped me grow up and stood by me all the way. Remember steps of Sam Phil, life talks, the firsts, "beep, beep", pig outs, HKSA, the procrastination club, nonstop gossip sessions . . . We've shared in each other's hopes, worries, laughs and tears. Remember those moments and smile. I love you forever. J.T., J.G., and the rest of you guys in Andover, Thanx for making life at Andover so special. I'll always treasure the memories of us.
T.H., C.S., M.C. & the rest in HKS, Thank you for a wonderful year, you've enriched my life in so many ways. I hope we'll always stay in touch, see you next year in college.
N.P., You will always be special to me, don't lose touch abba, I'm only a phonecall away. "You only live once, but if you live right, once is enough."

Alice opened the door and found that it led into a small passage, not much larger than a rat-hole: she knelt down and looked along the loveliest garden you ever saw. How she longed to get of that dark hall, and wander among those beds of flowers and those cool fountains, but she could not even get her head through the doorway; . . . "Oh, how I wish I could shut up like a telescope! I think I could, if only I knew how to begin." For, you see, so many out-of-the-way things happened lately that Alice had begun to think that very few things indeed were really impossible.

— Lewis Carroll, Alice in Wonderland
Mom and Dad: Thanks for your love and support. I takes mighty people to put up with me. I love you guys.
Alarick: I can't believe how quickly time has passed. ILY always.

Sam Hse and the Joels: 2 years isn't enough. ILY guys. HL, GW, KA, NA: carpooling, summer camp/school, 7th grade, Cooperman . . . We have to get together this summer!

CONGRATULATIONS
TO
THE FIRE DOOR
AND
THE CLASS OF 1993
The Marsh Family

When an MKA student named Kristy
Entered P.A. her eyes were quite misty.
They opened very fast in the first English class
And after that all became history.

Survival's the key at P.A.
Common's food? "Incredible," she'd say
With caffeine as her friend
She endured 'til the end
We couldn't be prouder today!

And now on life's college journey she's bound
Well prepared by P.A. she'll have found
'Twas the road well worth taking
Creatively making a pathway to the stars!

We love you —

Congratulations To the Lizard

(a young woman who like Twain, never let her schooling interfere with her education.):

Liz you have grown before our eyes, but no more so than these past three years. You continually amaze us and make us proud. You chose the road less traveled and then decided to make your own. College waits for you and will take you where ever you wish to go. We know what ever you choose it will be right for you. You have the rest of your life to enjoy and so much yet to see, we will always be by your side anytime you are in need. Now go on, as we leave you with these last words from your favorite bear :

"When you wake up in the morning, Pooh," said Piglet at last, " what's the first thing you say to yourself?"

"What's for breakfast?" said Pooh. "What do you say, Piglet?"

"I say, I wonder what's going to happen exciting today?" said Piglet. Pooh nodded thoughtfully. "It's the same thing," he said.

Dear T.J.,

Never measure yourself by the standards of others.
Trust in yourself and follow your heart
Believe in the rightness of your own knowing.
Be supremely yourself; fulfill your own part.

The world overflows with self-styled authorities
All flapping their traps and expounding what's "true."
Claim your own power, keep your own counsel.
The only authority on your life is you!

May the world be better because of you.

Dan,

You have made us indeed proud and happy to be your parents! Your accomplishments speak for themselves. When another generation looks at this they will know some of what you accomplished:

- Dorm Proctor
- Chorus, Cantata, Fidelio
- National Merit Finalist
- Early admission to Harvard
- Honor Roll every term
- Boston Marathon - wow!
- Varsity Cross Country and Gymnastics
- Those amazing SAT's

Let whoever is reading this 20 or 30 years from now when you are in the "prime of life" know that you were one hell of a kid! (Who was also an authority on fire escapes!)

To G. Love A. Sorry for the missing one. 6/5/93

COMMUNITY SERVICE SPRING 1993

Thank You, Ms. Minard, for all that you have done.

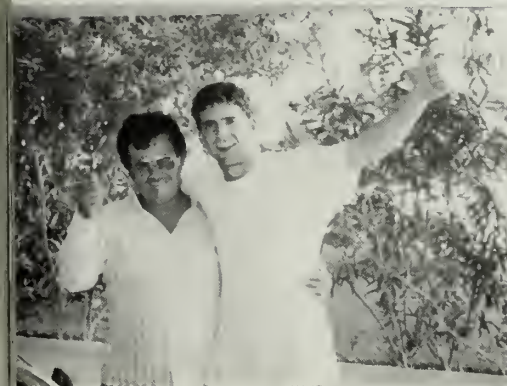

A yearbook, I've discovered, is a difficult thing to organize and put together. With over 300 senior pictures and quotes to type up and alphabetize, it is difficult to finish the year with a perfect, error-less, totally unoffending publication. And yes, this years book did have its share of misspellings and misquotes and that is unexcusable and I am sorry. So please accept my apologies and have a great summer.

Love,
Chris Dixon

COMMENCEMENT

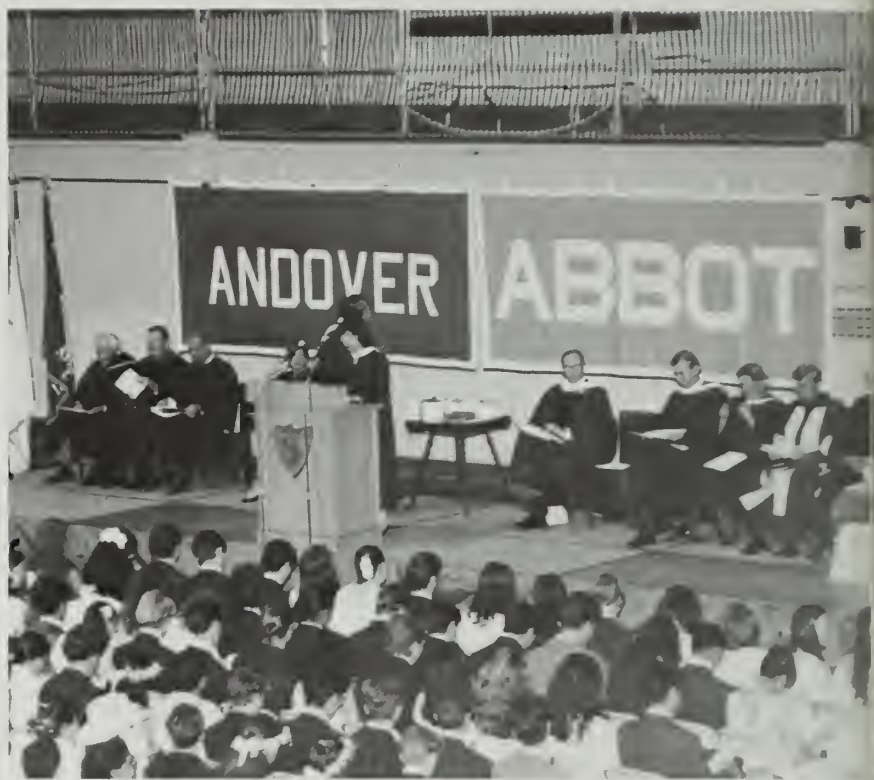

The New Board '93-'94

6/6/93

Well, Graduation was this morning and it is crunch time for the Pot Pourri. This book that you are flipping through, happened because a group of us here at Evan's Basement decided to pull a few late nights, order some Kung Pao chicken and Lo Mein, drink a few gallons of Pepsi and laugh at ourselves — Upper year was over, and we still hadn't gone to bed. To the seniors whose names were misspelled, pictures were left out, or experienced any inconveniences — our sincerest apologies. Good luck to the Class of 1993.

We hope that this supplement will help you remember some of the finer points of spring term.

The Pot Pourri
'93-'94

Gregory B. Thomas

I'd like to thank the Pot Pourri for leaving me out of the real yearbook.

As a senior's mother said in a high pitched, annoying voice "Oh, you'll have no proof you were ever here! Ha Ha!"

Stuart: JF, AB, SP, PK, MT, JE and the others — you guys are Catholic Priest's nightmare.

Russian Exchangers: EK, AE, LG, OB, — Ya vac lyublyu.

Most importantly, my family —

Mom, Dad, Billy, and Lauren —

I love you all very much. Without your love and patience, I could never have made it.

Remember — you don't have to be a woman to be a bitch — you just have to be a bitch.

PS. I also would like to thank the school for introducing the Sanctuary policy, because it REALLY saved my ass a few times.

Willett Bird

CWR + DP — Thanks for making Whitney a smi-safe place to live — I love you both — please don't lose touch DC — fun, fun, fun w/volleyball — Thanks for a great senior spring MK — Thanks for the Russian help and Celtic bonding RM — Didn't have enough high school — nice knowing you my fav PG MF — Thanks for the Wilt Kidt — baseball was fun — losing to CA wasn't TL — You're a dork, don't ever forget it NV — 7'8", where's my $15, Smoot, have fun at the big hill JP — Best yearbook signing ever in CR — have fun at Harvard/Stanford CB — You did not deserve that 6 from Mr. Thomas DB — Great party — ENOUGH SAID! JS — Have fun in D.C. my Buckley bud — never forget Dr. A JL — Had lots of fun — sorry for the end result KH — Sorry it ended the way it did, but I had fun while it lasted RFC — Thanks for the Russian help and comradeship — Write me TC + JM — fun, fun, fun golfing, bowling — your both awesome — write! SG + AC — The greatest managers ever — I love you both — Thanks for getting me through the season SF = Have fun in DC — I'll visit you in NH — Find me in NYC — Call!!! AG — You and the muscle man were mucho fun — stay in touch HB — HR derby, IP queen (not innings, pitched) best legs, call me SS — You are the best, I know we'll stay in touch forever, never forget the weight room or the top of GW and the moon, I Love You!!! MAR — The actor have fun in New Haven & don't forget to call you Mom!!! GL — Spoooge, hope your many talents take you far, have fun in CA, never forget mom's wake-up call and all my useful gossip CS — Maine is so far from TN, thank God — Have fun at Bowdoin, and remember that the backseat is more comfortable than the front seat — except in a convertible — don't lose touch DJ — never forget the hockey — both in your room and Nintendo — Go get some neat liberal views at that ultra-liberal school in NH CER — Hang in there — only three more years, Ha Ha! CMR — Thank you for making the Spring of '93 so much fun — I had a blast and will always remember you, nights at Jen's golf, prom, Fenway, Grad parties — Please never lose touch — I'm so very sorry that we had to go to schools so very far apart — Jet'aime!! Ne Oublie!! Thank You Mom + John for getting me through here and supporting me for so long + to Bro whose done nothing useful except being a great brother — I love you all — Pleas no one lose touch. Then comes the supreme and ultimate miracle: art becomes "artless," shooting becomes not shooting, a shooting without bow and arrow; the teacher becomes a pupil again, the master a beginner, the end a beginning, and the beginning perfection.

— Eugen Herrigel Zen in the Art of Archery
The automatic doors in a supermarket were broken. A sign said:

"Please note — the only way OUT is IN"

As always, it is how one perceives the door that determines the coming and going. There are two journeys one must make to have balance — OUT there and IN here. One depends on the other. Every exit is an entrance. The door swings both ways. The only way out is always in. To move on in the world as it is, one must turn to resources within.

"within a circle of one meter you sit, pray, and sing."

— Nanao Sakaki

Ah, my friends, to the mad days of our youth, and to the tribes of the greater nine thousand.

"Slowly, slowly through the fields . . ."

— Lenny Kravitz, "Fields of Joy"

"Half of what I say . . ."

— The Beatles, "Julia"

"Make it look like you've been there before."

— Tom McGraw

"Ignore him when he calls you an asshole, but when he tells you why you're an asshole, listen."

— Indiana Hoosier

Thank You Mom, Dad, and Shane.
Without your constant love and support, I would be nothing. I love you.
And many thanks to my friends, especially
MC, YS, JD, AR, SF, EC, EC, and JS, without whom I'd have packed my bags and gone home long ago.
"Don't forget the songs that made you laugh, and the songs that made you cry."

Mark,
Here's your first stand-alone picture. Now you're able to face the whole world on your own!
Congratulations!
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Muffin

Johnny,
You've always been a winner in our eyes. Congratulations and all our love for future happiness and fulfilled dreams.

CAMILLA VON STAUFFENBERG

Here was peace. She pulled in her horizon like a great fish-net. Pulled it from around the waist of the world and draped it over her shoulder. So much of life was in its meshes! She called in her soul to come and see.
